

IOSH Managing Safely

Course Code: IOSHMS

Introduction

The IOSH Managing Safely course is designed for managers and supervisors of organisations in virtually all industry sectors, in order to give them all they need to know to effectively manage health and safety in the workplace.

Recently updated, the new high impact programme covers key health and safety issues, and includes references to international case studies.

This course is approved by the Institution of Occupational Safety & Health (IOSH), Europe's leading body for health and safety.

Content

Each delegate will be issued with a workbook to assist them both during and after the course which will contain information, guidance and forms to assist managers. The course is designed to be interactive, allowing delegates the opportunity to develop their skills with the support of the course tutor.

- Introduction and overview
- Risk assessment
- Controlling risks
- Health and safety legislation and understanding your responsibilities
- Identifying hazards
- Investigating accidents and incidents
- Measuring performance
- Protecting our environment

Aim

This course is aimed at managers and supervisors in any sector and any organisation, who have a responsibility for Health and Safety at Work. It's designed to get managers up to speed on the practical actions they need to take to handle health and safety in their teams.

Participants

The IOSH Managing Safely course is aimed at managers and supervisors with health and safety responsibilities, but is equally valid for directors, senior officers and health and safety officers in low risk organisations. Past delegates have come from virtually every industry and internationally.

On successful completion of the IOSH Managing Safely course, delegates will have an understanding of the legal requirements for risk assessment and be able to identify hazards both generally, and from their organisation's perspective.

Certification

At the end of the IOSH Managing Safely course, delegates are required to undertake a multi-format assessment and a short workplace-based practical project. Delegates must complete their project and return it to the tutor within 14 days of the course completion.

Those who successfully complete the assessments at the end of the course are awarded an IOSH Certificate in Managing Safely.
