

Health And Safety Representatives Course

Course Code: HSR1

Introduction

Our course has been developed with clients to ensure your business and Safety representative work together to meet with the Health & Safety Legislation currently enforce.

The course is an ideal introduction for those wishing to understand the role, develop into the role or act as a Safety representative.

Content

- The Principles of Accident Prevention
- The current Legal Requirements
- Consultation & Involving Employees
- Workplace Hazards and Risks
- The functions of Employee/Safety Representatives
- The role of the Safety Committee
- Accident Investigation/RIDDOR

Aim

To promote and maintain safety and health in the workplace.

The Safety Representative Course outlines the roles and functions of a Health and Safety Representative.

Participants

Those who wish to become Health and Safety Representatives, employee representatives and their managers and Safety committee members.

Certification

Candidates who successfully pass the course will receive a certificate of competency in the role of a Safety Representative

Speak to a course advisor
01782 461 506

training@siteenergyservices.co.uk

Units 14-15
Park Hall Business Village
Park Hall Road
Longton
Stoke-on-Trent, ST3 5XAE

