

Basic Electrical Maintenance Course

Course Code: EB1

Introduction

Replacing like for like faulty electrical accessories is essential for the safe working environment you need to provide, and for all areas visitors or members of the public attend.

This course is for the safe replacement of faulty single phase accessories, by trades and maintenance persons to understand how to safely carry out maintenance and repairs to sockets, switches and all manner of electrical accessories found in light commercial and domestic property.

Please note all candidates must have attended a safe isolation course before attending this course.

Content

- Health and Safety legislation
- Scope of works
- Risk Assessment
- Safe isolation of electrical circuits
- Replacing accessories
- Basic functional checks
- Waste Management
- Common Test Instruments
- Completion of appropriate documentation

Aim

To ensure the safe work place practices are carried out correctly.

Participants

All persons who undertake basic electrical maintenance, particularly:

Caretakers

Property maintenance personnel
Facilities management companies
Schools Maintenance
Joiners
Plumbers
Gas engineers
Security Engineers
Fire Alarm Engineers

Certification

Candidates who successfully complete the Accredited written and practical assessment will receive a certificate of competence.

Speak to a course advisor
01782 461 506

admin@sestraining.co.uk

Units 14-15
Park Hall Business Village
Park Hall Road
Longton
Stoke-on-Trent, ST3 5XAE

